25X1A 1. [REDACTED] familiar with two of the building organizations maintained by the Rumanian Ministry of Constructions. These, formerly known as M1 and M4, (the "M" standing for the district of Muntenia) were amalgamated on 1 February 1951. As a result of the amalgamation, apparently, many of M1's employees were dismissed on 15 March 1951.

25X1A 2. Both M1 and M4 were located in Bucharest. [REDACTED] only the address of the old M1: Calea Beldiman, Bucharest.

3. Up to the time of the amalgamation M4 was handling more than 100 separate building jobs, most of them military, including the building of training schools for pilots near the military airfield at Zilistea in the Buzau area, and the repair of the Marasesti barracks (damaged during the war) at Buzau. Source is not familiar with the M1 construction organization but knows that it was once located in the Scanteia building.

4. The Corp de Munca (Labor Corps) formed in March 1951 provides a large proportion of laborers employed for building jobs. These laborers are liable for military service but are not accepted for the Army. The officers of this Corps wear pale blue uniforms.
